An Honest Sale of Furniture at Prices That Are Dumbfounding. The goods must go. The prices are about as you would have them. Never do we resort to subterfuge to sell our goods; we would rather keep them than do one thing that would deceive or have the least appearance of deceit. Hence when we tell you we are selling goods at cost or at a stated discount from regular prices we mean exactly what we say. During this sale we offer values that are staple, offering prices that are magical, and thereby demonstrating again as heretofore that there is no place where Furniture and other House Furnishings can be secured so cheap as at WADDELL'S.

WOULD'N'T SUE TIGER-TAIL.

The Big Chief Smashed First Plate Glass Front in the Everglades.

When Henry M. Flagler, the wizard of the East coast, began operations that turned a peninsula and "scrub oak" tangle into a tropical fairland, and gave to the world its greatest and most delightful winter resort, Palm Beach, there were many small investors who followed him there.

One of these was G. O. Livingston of Jacksonville, Fla., who had built a brick block near Flagler's investments in St. Augustine, and had remarked that he would follow him "kiss it" to Cape Sable, and around on the Gulf if Flagler should keep on going.

"You see," said he, "when the big shark goes along he gobbles up all the little fishes in sight, but there are lots of small pick-ups that he does and doesn't take time to eat, because he is always chasing after the big game. This is where I come in."

Mr. Livingston had an ambition to have the first plate glass front in the Everglades.

Winnie O'Connor broke the list of winning jockeys at Oakland. Lee Jackson is second.

Mr. Wheeler Got Rid of His Rheumatism. "During the winter of 1898 I was so lame in my joints, in fact all over my body, that I could hardly hobble around, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. From the first application I began to get well, and was cured and have worked steadily all the year—R. Wheeler, Northwood, N. Y. For sale by all druggists.
